The famous artist who lived at numbers 19, 19bis, and 21 in a nice square cut in three streets is Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec. He resided in these three adjacent addresses on Rue Pierre Fontaine in the Pigalle area of Montmartre, Paris, from 1884 to around 1893/94. This period was his most creative, and he produced some of his greatest works while living there.

Therefore, the full name of the artist to find the flag is:

Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec.
